

The Community Foundation of Howard County, Inc.
& Lilly Endowment Inc. present
The Lilly Endowment Community Scholarship Program

Two Lilly Endowment Community Scholarships will be awarded to Howard County residents in 2009. Please read this insert for eligibility requirements.

- The Lilly Endowment Community Scholarship Program is to help raise the level of educational attainment in Indiana and to leverage further the ability of Indiana's community foundations to enhance the quality of life of the state's residents.
- The scholarship will provide full tuition, required fees and a special allocation of up to $800 per year for required books and required equipment for four years of undergraduate study on a full-time basis, leading to a baccalaureate degree at any Indiana public or private college or university accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.
- The program is open to all Howard County residents who will have graduated by the end of June, 2009 with a diploma from a regionally accredited Indiana high school.
- The scholarship applicant must be a first-time student and intend to pursue four years of undergraduate study on a full-time basis leading to a baccalaureate degree at an Indiana college or university.
- The total amount of the scholarship is calculated on the basis of the applicant's chosen college's tuition and required fees beginning with the 2009-10 school year.
- The scholarship recipient will assist with the processing of the scholarship payments each semester or quarter by forwarding immediately to the Community Foundation of Howard County, Inc. all invoices received for tuition and any eligible fees that may be covered by the scholarship.
- The scholarship recipient must account and return to Independent Colleges of Indiana any amount of the special allocation for required books and required equipment remaining at the end of each school year.
- The scholarship recipient will notify Independent Colleges of Indiana of any scholarship awards he or she may receive for tuition or required fees from a source other than the Lilly Endowment Community Scholarship.
- The scholarship recipient must keep the Community Foundation of Howard County, Inc. apprised annually by June 1st of his or her enrollment and academic status during college, by completing and returning any surveys or forms as may be provided by the Community Foundation.
- Upon graduation, the recipient will keep the Community Foundation of Howard County, Inc. apprised annually by June 1st of his or her education and/or employment status for at least ten years after graduation, by completing and returning an alumni survey or other forms as provided by the Community Foundation.
- The scholarship recipient must give permission to use any general, non-financial information included in this application for publicity purposes; to provide the foundation with photographs and to participate in scholarship recognition ceremonies of the Endowment's and Foundation's choosing.
- If selected as a finalist, the scholarship applicant must agree to participate in an interview with the selection committee.
- Preference will be given to first generation college attendees.
- Financial need will be a factor in making this award. A copy of **Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)* must be included with application.
- Other criteria used in selection: academic achievement, school, community and work activities, and potential for success. Letters of recommendation from no more than three people.
- Application must be received by January 12, 2009. Please mail or deliver the completed application with original transcript of grades, copy of FAFSA form, and letters of recommendation to:
