

THE DAVID FOSTER SOCIETY
Community Foundation of Howard County

The “David Foster Society” is named for David Foster, the first philanthropist in Howard County history. He donated the land that would become the City of Kokomo. Donors to the Community Foundation of Howard County’s David Foster Society support the operating costs of the Foundation.

In addition, the Community Foundation of Howard County is supported by generous donors who allow Howard County to enjoy the benefits of hometown philanthropy through the many funds in the Foundation. Donors to the Community Foundation do not have to go far to see the difference their gifts are making in Howard County. Call it the hometown advantage; the evidence of local philanthropy is everywhere. To see examples of projects supported by Foundation grants:

- Visit the F. D. Reece Christian Academy and observe young students learning to use computers provided through a grant from the Foundation;
- Drive by Howard Haven and see the residents enjoying the enclosed porches made possible with grant funds;
- Make plans to go to the newly renovated Kokomo-Howard County Public Library to see the grant awarded for glass panels artfully etched with depictions of the "City of Firsts" history.

We are pleased with these accomplishments and we are profoundly grateful to donors who have contributed financially to make these things happen.

Please consider a contribution to the David Foster Society to support the Foundation’s operating costs. Your contribution also allows our donors and the Foundation to continue to meet the needs of the community and to support the dreams of the community now and in the future. Your gift entitles you to recognition as a member of the David Foster Society. Gifts can be made online at www.cfhoward.org or by sending your contribution to the Community Foundation of Howard County, 215 W. Sycamore St., Kokomo, IN 46901. The various levels of giving are outlined below.
